Five Tips to Write an Effective Book Review A book review is a form of literary criticism in which a book is analyzed based on content, style, and merit while the reader's attitude towards a work is factored in. Writing a book review requires its author to have an understanding of the work, so he or she can describe it accurately for other readers. The best reviews are well-informed but also deeply personal, revealing a reader's reaction to a book and how it made him feel.
